EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT & STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Arguments

1. In response to applicant's response filed 19 April 2005, the status of the application is as follows:

Drawing Objections

In view of applicant's arguments and drawings correction, the objections to the drawings are withdrawn.

Rejection under 35 U.S.C. §112, first paragraph

The rejection of claims 2-3 under 35 U.S.C. §112, first paragraph is withdrawn in view of applicant's arguments overcoming the rejection.

Rejection under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph

The rejection of claims 1-19 under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment canceling claim 1.

The rejection of claims 1-20 under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment canceling claim 1 and amending claim 20. Since the phrase "motor area" is intended use and does not positively recite a motor, claim 20 is construed as a housing enclosure capable of containing a motor.

Rejection under 35 U.S.C. §102

In view of applicant's claims as amended, particularly the cancellation of claim 1 and amendment to the dependent claims to depend for claim 20 (indicated as containing allowable subject matter), this rejection is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of record, U.S. Patent No. 5,794,634 to Noren et al., fails to teach or reasonably suggest each and every limitation of the instant invention. Specifically, Noren discloses a gas burner heated washing machine. However, the Noren reference fails to teach or suggest the claimed dishwasher having a gas burner in heat-conducting contact with a closed fluid filled tubular heating body programmed for using the gas burner to heat the heating body in a drying mode and heat rinsing liquid in a rinsing mode, which is disclosed as an essential element of claimed invention.

3. For at least the foregoing reasons, the claims are believed to recite patentable subject matter.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
